21 Elements RHNA 5

TAC Meeting #19 September 12, 2013

Purposes of Today's Meeting

- 1 Review the 21 Elements and RHNA Schedule
- 2 Review products, new material and information needed from jurisdictions
- 3 Review coordination and transition
- Discuss and determine next steps for the Nexus Study

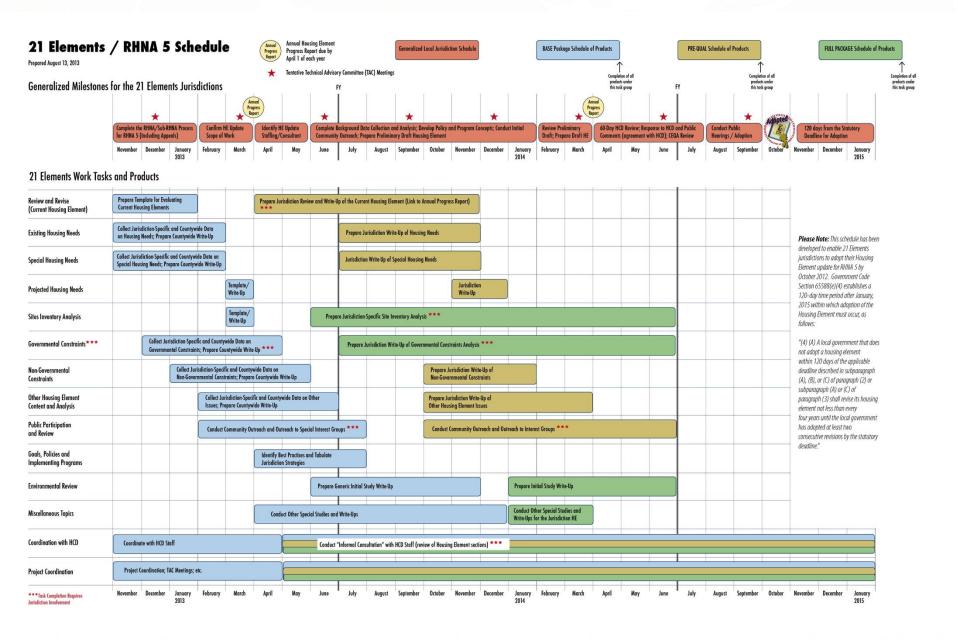

Today's Agenda

- Welcome, Introductions and Review of the Meeting Purposes
- II. Review Draft Program Guidelines for PDA Planning Grants
- III. Review Schedule, Coordination and Project Management Transition
- IV. Review Completed/Nearly Complete Products
- V. Discuss Approach for Upcoming Items (Constraints, Public Participation Plan, Second Units and Nexus Study)

Close no later than 3:00 pm

Item II. Draft Program Guidelines for PDA Planning Grants

Item III. Schedule, Coordination and Project Management Transition

Item IV. Completed/Nearly Completed 21 Elements Products

Recently Completed/Nearly Completed Products

- Review of Current Housing Elements (3 completed and the rest are 85% done) — (1) need jurisdiction review of drafts to make sure they are complete and up-to-date; (2) program naming and program summary descriptions formatted to make it easier to undertake annual review. October completion
- Housing Needs Tables Draft
- Fact Sheet on Low Income Housing Tax Credits Scoring Formula

Item V. Discussion Items

Items for Discussion

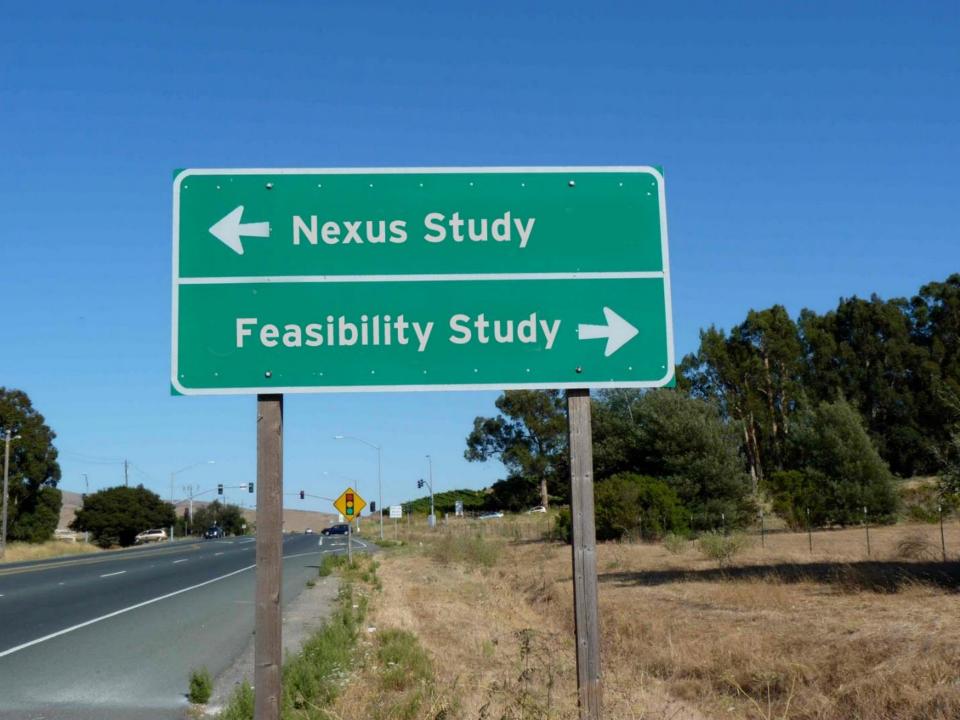

- Potential Governmental Constraints Analysis
- Public Participation Plan
- Second Units
- Nexus Study

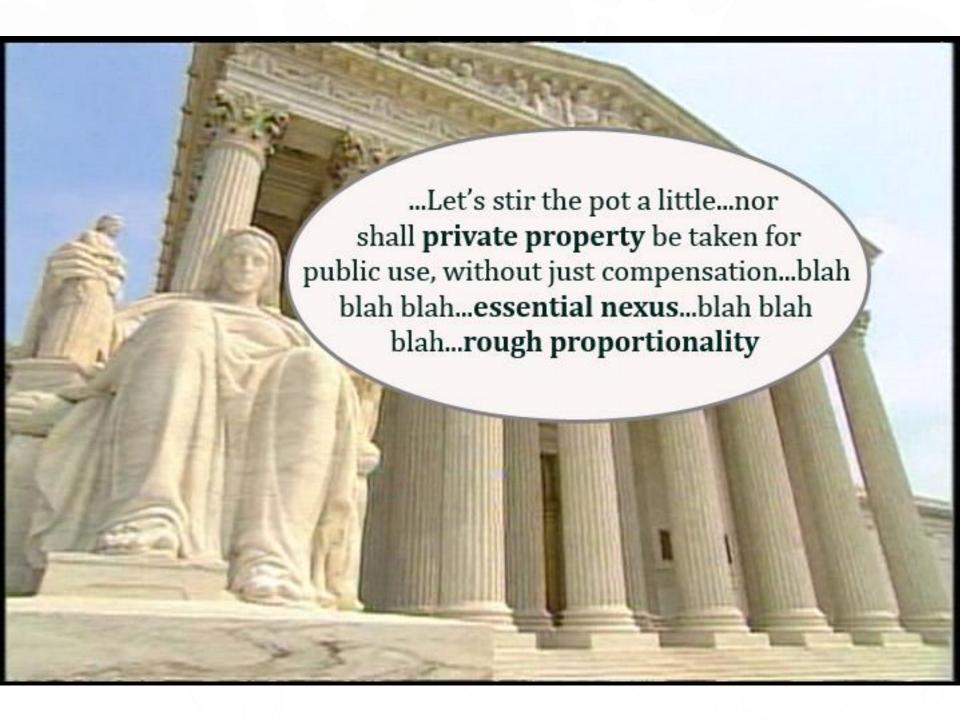

Constraints

Public Participation Plan

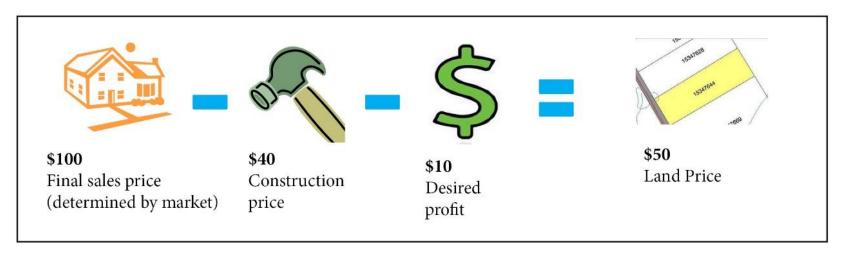

- Stakeholder lists
- Web presence
- > 21 Element meetings with
 - Housing advocates
 - Developers
 - Special needs advocates
- Optional public meetings
- Optional newsletters
- Handouts

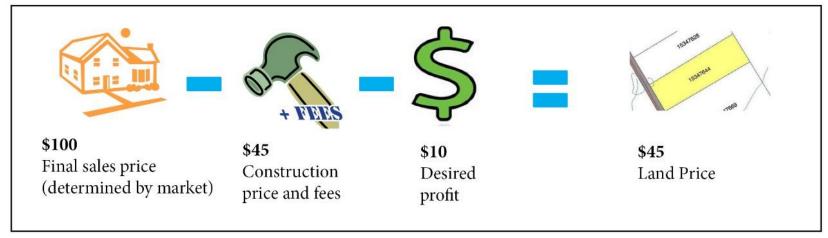

Second Units

Feasibility

Participating Jurisdictions

- Commercial Nexus Study Foster City, Menlo Park, South San Francisco and City of San Mateo
- Residential Nexus Study Burlingame, Colma, Menlo Park, San Bruno, City of San Mateo and Redwood City